

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcasting's intent to broadcast "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal", a clearly partisan alleged documentary. The accusations that John Kerry compromised his peers in war are highly suspect at best and total fabrication at worst.

We fought Fascism on foreign shores during world war II. We don't need it on ours.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you for your consideration.
